MARK YOUR CALENDARS!!

On Saturday, October 16, 2010, Abiding Savior members have another GREAT opportunity to be the hands and feet of Christ in the St. Louis community.

On this day, we will be hosting the third

Send Me: Abiding Savior St. Louis Mission Trip.

We will gather in the morning for breakfast and devotions, get our work team assignments, go out and serve, and then return at the end of the day for dinner, fellowship, and a praise service. This event is an AWESOME chance for us to impact the lives of people in our community for Jesus!!

More information about the day will be forthcoming from the event's planning team. Please call or email Jenn McBurney (314-650-4381; jenlmcburney@hotmail.com) or Cindy Sell (314-221-8918; jcsell@sbcglobal.net) with any questions.
